

Internal War for America's Future

By Dr. Hesham Tillawi

The Host & the Parasite is an encyclopedia of a complex web of qualitative events woven together in a masterpiece. It is filled with evidence of the existence of a true "fifth column" operating on behalf of Israel in the United States, and it proves beyond any reasonable doubt that Israel is sitting in the driver's seat within the U.S. government.

Greg Felton is an investigative journalist specializing in the Middle East, Canadian politics, the media and language whom I had the pleasure of interviewing on my TV program, Current Issues. [See currentissues.tv on the Internet for more.—Ed.]

Brave souls in the fields of politics and journalism are scarce these days, but the bravery and integrity shown in this book is unmatched except by other brave souls such as Rep. Paul Findley, author of They Dare to Speak Out: People and Institutions Confront Israel's Lobby.

The Host & the Parasite covers the Palestinian issue from the early days of Zionism in Palestine and America with a clarity, depth and cohesiveness of thought, that make it an excellent source of information for the average man in the street or the researcher in the world's most prestigious institutions.

Felton provides names, events and documents to support his arguments. These include documents such as A Clean Break: A New Strategy for Securing the Realm, a 1996 policy recommendation report presented to Benyamin Netanyahu, then-prime minister of Israel. It advocates Israel's "independence from America" and the destruction of Saddam Hussein's Iraqi regime years before 9-11 took place.

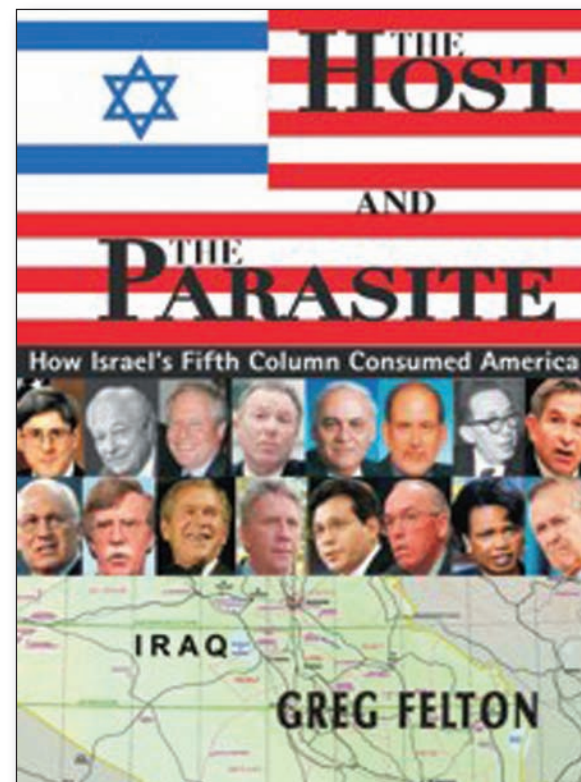

Here is what Felton wrote about the neo-conservative Project for the New American Century (PNAC):

[PNAC] intends, through issue briefs, research papers, advocacy journalism, conferences and seminars, to explain what American world leadership entails. It will also strive to rally support for a vigorous and principled policy of American international involvement and to stimulate useful public debate on foreign and defense policy and America's role in the world.

This is the organization of which William Kristol is chairman. It has many other people working with him who share the same Zionist ideas of world domination through the control of American resources and foreign policy. Members include Richard Perle; Douglas J. Feith, who served as the undersecretary of defense for policy under President George W. Bush from July 2001 until August 2005; and Paul D. Wolfowitz, a former U.S. deputy secretary of defense and president of the World Bank. These people are the "neo-conservatives" who found their way into the U.S. Department of Defense during the first Bush term and were instrumental in taking the U.S. to attack Iraq in order to destroy it—an "Israeli objective in its own right."

This was laid out in the Clean Break document by the PNAC crowd.

Felton wrote the book that many people in the truth movement wanted to write but for some reason never did. In chapter seven, Felton speaks of the invention of Osama bin Laden. He wrote: "It is fair to say that if bin Laden did not exist he would have had to be invented. In fact, he was." This is an important fact that many mainstream media outlets do not recognize or are not even willing to investigate. It is because of the demonnized image of bin Laden that the United States was manipulated to attack Israel's enemies.

Like a composer of a great symphony, Felton, in Chapter 17, brings together all the ideas and issues he had written about in the previous chapters, including information about 9-11, bin Laden, the Taliban, Iraq, Palestine, Afghanistan and everything that has been associated with them in such a way that anyone reading that chapter alone would be satisfied with the book.

After excluding oil as the primary reason for invading Iraq, what remains is the seemingly improbable truth: The United States invaded Iraq for Israel. ★

How Israel's Fifth Column Has Consumed America

According to Canadian author Greg Felton, author of The Host and the Parasite: How Israel's Fifth Column Consumed America, since the 1980 general election, "a cabal of Zionist Jews, Evangelical Christians and neo-con econo-theologians has been waging war on the U.S. republic." Writes Felton: "Rather than consider Iraq in isolation as oil-firsters do, it must be placed in the more complete context of Israeli subjugation of the Middle East, especially Palestine. Not only does this larger picture reinforce the fact of U.S. subservience to Israel, but it further militates against considering oil as the prime determinant of U.S. policy. In short, a nuclear Iran would be a force for peace and stability, and Israel cannot allow that to happen." According to Felton, "Today the republic is dead, brought down by a junta that serves Israel's colonial interests, not the U.S. national interest. This is the essence of the war on terrorism and the motive behind the Sept. 11 attack, the invasion of Iraq and the overt provocations of Syria and Iran." The Host & the Parasite (softcover, 491 pages, #HOP, $35 plus $5 S&H inside the U.S.) is available from FIRST AMENDMENT BOOKS, 645 Pennsylvania Avenue SE, #100, Washington, D.C. 20003.
